With respect to the damage referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, any person (natural or legal) operating at the Airport (whether or not contractually bound to the Airport), as well as their insurers, shall:

- Waive any right of recourse against the Airport and its insurers, except in cases of gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Airport, which such person must prove. Gross negligence shall mean a fault of such seriousness as to demonstrate the party's unfitness to perform its obligations;
- Indemnify and hold harmless the Airport and its insurers, except in cases of gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Airport, against any claims of any nature whatsoever brought by any third party in connection with the aforementioned damage;
- Also indemnify and hold harmless the Airport and its insurers, except in cases of gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Airport, for all costs incurred in defending their interests in any existing or future dispute, including, but not limited to, legal counsel and representation fees, expert fees, and any unrecoverable legal costs.

3. Insurance

Any person (natural or legal) operating at the Airport (whether or not contractually bound to the Airport) shall take out all insurance policies necessary to cover any risks, of whatever nature, that they may incur or cause as a result of their use of the Airport, including in particular property damage insurance covering assets belonging to the user and a public liability insurance policy covering risks of damage to third parties, with coverage limits adequate in view of the risks inherent in an airport environment.

The insurance policies taken out by any person (natural or legal) operating at the Airport shall incorporate the waiver of recourse provisions set out in Article IV.2 above.

Where an occupancy agreement for the use of the public airport domain has been concluded with the user, the insurance provisions set out therein shall apply.

4. Required Documents for Aircraft Operations

In the month preceding the aircraft's arrival for scheduled airlines or before invoicing for general and business aviation, the following documents must be submitted to the airport:

- Certificate of Airworthiness indicating weight specifications.
- Noise Certificate specifying the maximum takeoff weight, engine details, and associated noise measurements.
- Air Operator Certificate (AOC) listing the relevant fleet to determine the type of commercial flight operation.

If applicable, for French airlines, a company-issued certificate confirming that the majority of their traffic is international (for VAT exemption purposes).

- The VAT number of the airline/operator.
- For EU-based companies, the intra-community VAT number.

If these documents are not provided, invoices will be issued inclusive of VAT, and no retroactive credit notes will be granted.

Non-certified declarative lists from the aviation authority of the country of origin will not be accepted.

The documents should be sent to:

5. Invoices payment

Charges and service fees are, in principle, payable immediately in cash by all companies and individuals, upon presentation of an invoice statement and issuance of a receipt. However, an application to open a customer account may be submitted to the Airport operator.

The opening of an account may be considered where:

- the invoiced operations are of a recurring nature;
- the amounts invoiced are sufficient to justify maintaining an account;
- the operator provides adequate guarantees regarding payment of invoices.

Surcharge for failure to pay in cash: if a company or individual without a customer account fails to pay the charges and service fees immediately in cash, a fixed additional amount of €20 excluding VAT shall be applied, in addition to the aforementioned billing fees.

The interest rate for late fees is equal to 3 times the legal interest rate. The fee for collection costs is set at 40 euros.

9. Ground holding

Regardless of the penalties incurred for late payment and of the fee for debt collection costs, the act of passing an unpaid aeronautical invoice to the claims department triggers the implementation of the procedure as provided for by Article R.224-4 of the French Civil Aviation Code below:

Fees are due for the provision of personnel and/or the use of the facilities, installations, buildings and tools that they cover the cost of.

In the event of the non-payment of fees due by an aircraft operator, the airport operator is permitted to call for the relevant authority of air traffic at the airport to hold the aircraft until the disputed amount has been received".
